A fellow who gave his name as Charles Lewis was collared and run in yesterday by officer Senteney for being drunk, and misconduct on the streets. When taken in charge he was chasing a number of half-grown girls up Sec-they were very much frightened is putting it mildly.

Mrs. Dr. Davis of East Second street had, at considerable expense and great pains, arranged a beautiful Christmas tree at her home for the and burned everything on it. With rare presence of mind and great personal risk Mrs. Davis gathered up a valuable rug on the floor and smothered the blaze. Aside from the great disappointment to the little ones in the loss of their presents there was no considerable damage.

How we do long for them good old times!

HERE's another echo from the tombs! Last Friday's Cincinnati Times-Star contained in its local column this pathetic story—

"CHARLES DOLLAHAN, who began life as a member of a good family in Harrison, died an outcast in Bellevue Hospital, New York, this week. After having been raised with care, and having good prospects, DOLLAHAN was summoned as a Juror in the case of WILLIAM BERNER, who killed WILLIAM KIRK. The Jury returned a verdict of manslaughter, a finding which caused Judge MATTHEWS to score the Jury before it was dismissed. The burning of the Courthouse and other depredations by the mob followed as a result of that verdict. DOLLAHAN never regained the friendship of the world after that. He became a vagabond, did time in the Workhouse, and was a beggar. The fiancée of his young manhood days died, and he was apparently without a sympathizer in the world."

How the trail of the serpent is seen!

DOLLAHAN was one of the Jury that the late TOM CAMPBELL "fixed" to render the verdict that cost Hamilton county its Courthouse, with an attendant loss of $4,000,000 and 63 precious lives!

TORTURED BY ITCHING SCALP

Eczema Broke Out Also on Hands and Limbs—Suffering Intense—Doctors Said Too Old to Be Cured—An Old Soldier of 80 Years Declares:

"CUTICURA TREATMENT IS A BLESSING"

"At all times and to all people I am willing to testify to the merits of Cuticura. It saved me from worse than the tortures of hades, about the year 1900, with itching on my scalp and temples, and afterwards it commenced to break out on my hands. Then it broke out on my limbs. I was advised to use salt and water, which I did, to no effect. I then went to a Surgeon, who commenced treating me with a wash of borax. This treatment did me no good, but rather aggravated the disease. I then told him I would go and see a physician in Erie. The reply was that I could go anywhere, but a case of eczema like mine could not be cured; that I was too old (80). I went to an eminent doctor in the city of Erie and treated with him for six months, with like results. I had read of the Cuticura Remedies often. I was strongly tempted to give them a trial, so I sent for the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent and continued taking the Resolvent until I had taken six bottles, stopping it to take the Pills. I was now getting better. I took two baths a day, and at night I let the lather of the Soap dry on. I used the Ointment with great effect after washing in warm water, to stop the itching at once. I am now cured."

"The Cuticura treatment is a blessing and should be used by every one who has itching of the skin. I can't say any more, and thank God that He has given the world such a curative. You can use this letter as you please. A very much benefited man, Wm. H. Gray, 3303 Mt. Vernon St., Philadelphia, Pa., August 2, 1905."

out half the lot is composed of for-which are encased in thick paper bags me of the country stenciled on the g. The remainder, including those ase, are not wrapped, but tied in and lettered. The pile contains ulation number each ship must his number of flags costs the 000 a year, of which $43,000 one. Each ship has forty-three board constantly. These flags are at long and thirteen feet wide. W board the ship is prepared to meet and proper courtesies which naval etiquette demands to all Nations whose high officials should come aboard or whose waters the vessel should enter while on a cruise.

As a ship's quota of flags is renewed every three years, it is no small job to keep enough flags on hand, and to this end Uncle Sam keeps a large flag-making establishment running at full blast the year round at the Brooklyn Navy-yard. Here there are nearly 100 skilled needle women working every day of the year except Sundays and holidays, cutting the varicolored bunting strips and sewing and etching them together in their proper place.

The most difficult part of the work is the making of the foreign flags, for some of them, be it known, are fearfully and wonderfully made, take, for example, the flag of San Salvador. In the back is a belching volcano, pouring forth its lava and white smoke. On the sides of the mountain is the green foliage and shrubbery.
Directly in front is a tranquil sea of sapphire blue. Above the volcano is a rising sun, set in a design of overflowing cornucopias and a diamond, from which the rays are scintillating in every direction. To the right and left of the volcano are draped in varied design banners which laboriously try to pattern the Stars and Stripes, and yet not show the plagiarism.
Around the whole concatenation is a wreath of cactus lovingly embracing the volcano, while at the top the date of the country's independence is inscribed.

To make a flag of San Salvador costs the Government just $52.50, and when one of these flag is placed years it can be readily seen that the insignificant little Republic to the South of us is really costing the taxpayers of the country more than they would care to admit.

Then there is the flag of China, with its long, crawling mythical blood red dragon. To make that flag costs the Government something like $40. The flag of Costa Rica, with its scenic beauty of mountain and sea, costs $50, nearly as much as the costliest of them all, that of San Salvador.

The largest flag made by Uncle Sam's flag-makers is the United States Ensign No. 1, which is thirty-six feet long and nineteen feet wide.
It costs $40 to turn out a flag of this style.

The President's flag, while not the largest, requires the longest time of any to make, as it takes one woman a whole month to finish it.
